DETAILED ACTION

1. This application has been examined. Claims 35-38 are presented for examination.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election of Group II, claims 35-38 in Paper No. 6 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
3. Claims 1-34 and 39-41 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention. Election was made without traverse as necessitated by MPEP § 818.03(a) (See paragraph 2 above for details).
4. Examiner is appreciative of the courtesy shown by Applicant in discussions of this restriction requirement.

Priority

5. This application claims benefit of the provisional application 60/156,956 (09/30/1999).
6. The effective filing date for the subject matter defined in the pending claims, which has support in provisional application 60/156,956 in this application, is 09/30/1999. Any new subject matter defined in the claims not previously disclosed in provisional application 60/156,956, is entitled to the effective filing date of 09/29/2000.

Information Disclosure Statement

7. An initialed and dated copy of Applicant's IDS form 1449, Paper No. 4, is attached to the instant Office action.

Claim Objections

8. Claim 37 objected to because of the following informalities: "adoptive" should read "adaptive". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

10. Claims 35-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chakrabarti et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,356,899), hereinafter referred to as Chakrabarti.
11. Regarding claim 35, Chakrabarti disclosed a system for providing enhanced web-browsing comprising: a data double, comprising data that identifies a member; service providers that provide service provider content including services and information; a personal site that the member uses to access the service provider content; and an engine that processes the data double and the service provider content to provide relevant and meaningful content to the member through the personal site (Abstract,

Art Unit: 2144

Figures 1, 5-7, column 5 lines 53-67, column 10 lines 1-8, column 13 lines 23-33, column 32 lines 33-65).

12. Regarding claim 36, Chakrabarti disclosed a system wherein the engine comprises identify management that manages the data double to establish a personal profile, member preferences, member permissions, and activity data for the member; and context management that organizes service provider content, coordinates browsing processes, and provides an adaptive framework (column 5 lines 53-67, column 11 lines 53-65, column 13 lines 23-33, column 25 lines 35-50, column 32 lines 33-65).

13. Regarding claim 37, Chakrabarti disclosed a system wherein the personal site comprises: smart pages, comprising: a log in page; a home page; and inside pages; and an adoptive framework, comprising: selection navigators; and a toolbar (Abstract, Figures 6-8 and 10, column 5 lines 57-67, column 15 lines 59-67, column 16 lines 1-18, column 32 lines 32-36).

14. Regarding claim 38, Chakrabarti disclosed a system wherein the selection navigators provide direct page searching comprising: a fixed hierarchal structure listing a web site's areas with sections and pages; an explicit SQL criteria search [query], whereby by the selection navigators gather and dynamically assemble web sites meeting the criteria; and a group SQL [query] criteria, wherein the selection navigators store the criteria, gather and dynamically assemble web sites meeting the criteria and update the web sites when new content in found meeting the criteria (Figure 13, column 7 lines 14-32, column 25 lines 35-51).

Art Unit: 2144

15. Since all the limitations of the claimed invention were disclosed by Chakrabarti, claims 35-38 are rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

16. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

17. Claims 35-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over MacNaughton. (U.S. Patent Number 5,796,393), hereinafter referred to as MacNaughton, in view of Li et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,631,496), hereinafter referred to as Li.

18. Regarding claim 35, MacNaughton disclosed a system for providing enhanced web-browsing comprising: a data double, comprising data that identifies a member; service providers that provide service provider content including services and information; a personal site that the member uses to access the service provider content; an engine that processes the data double and the service provider content to provide content to the member through the personal site (Abstract, Figures 1-1B, 6, column 1 lines 19-34, column 6 lines 25-37, column 8 lines 24-42).

19. MacNaughton taught the invention substantially as claimed. However, MacNaughton did not expressly teach an engine that processes the service provider content to provide relevant and meaningful content to the member through the personal site.

Art Unit: 2144

20. MacNaughton suggested exploration of art and/or provided a reason to modify the system with the personalized feature (column 4 lines 24-32, column 7 lines 15-33, column 8 lines 9-23).

21. In an analogous art, Li disclosed an engine that processes the service provider content to provide relevant and meaningful content to the member through the personal site (Title, Abstract, Figures 1, 11, column 5 lines 19-33, column 6 lines 22-31).

22. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify the system of MacNaughton with the teachings of Li to include the personalized feature in order to effectively retrieve content (Li, column 1 lines 32-41) since users would often encountered problems in finding information (Li, column 1 lines 32-41). In addition, personalized content could also provide subscription service, which retrieves user-specified interests (Li, Abstract) since this feature could be used to display specific on-line content that the user has requested to receive (MacNaughton, column 7 lines 31-33).

23. Regarding claim 36, MacNaughton disclosed a system wherein the engine comprises identify management that manages the data double to establish a personal profile, member preferences, member permissions, and activity data for the member; and context management that organizes service provider content, coordinates browsing processes, and provides an adaptive framework (Figures 1B, 3, 5, column 4 lines 24-32, column 6 lines 25-37, column 7 lines 14-33, column 8 lines 9-23).

24. Regarding claim 37, MacNaughton disclosed a system wherein the personal site comprises: smart pages, comprising: a log in page; a home page; and inside pages; and an adaptive framework, comprising: selection navigators; and a toolbar (Figure 6, column 3 lines 24-34, lines 51-61, column 9 line 54-column 10 lines 11, column 12 lines 41-49).

25. Regarding claim 38, Li disclosed a system wherein the selection navigators provide direct page searching comprising: a fixed hierarchal structure listing a web site's areas with sections and pages; an explicit SQL criteria search, whereby by the selection navigators gather and dynamically assemble web sites meeting the criteria; and a group SQL criteria, wherein the selection navigators store the criteria, gather and dynamically assemble web sites meeting the criteria and update the web sites when new content in found meeting the criteria (Figures 1-2, 5, 10-12A, 19, column 5 lines 19-33, column 7 lines 54-67, column 13 lines 35-56).

26. Since all the limitations of the claimed invention were disclosed by the combination of MacNaughton and Li, claims 35-38 are rejected.
